Privacy Policy

The Waggon Club (TWC) is committed to protecting your privacy and security. The organisation maintains strict control of information on its users and employs state of the art technologies to safeguard such information from unauthorised intrusions.

Why do we collect information?

We are not a commercial organisation and only collect personal information to enable us to correspond with members and to respond to requests for information about TWC.

How do we use the information?

When you submit personal information to TWC, you understand that you are agreeing to allow TWC access to, storage of and use of the data held within the secure TWC database. This information will not be accessible by or disclosed to third parties without the user's consent.

E-Mail & Linked Websites

Unfortunately, the transmission of information via the internet is not completely secure. Although we will do our best to protect your personal data, we cannot guarantee the security of your data transmitted to and from our site; any transmission is at your own risk. Once we have received your information, we will use strict procedures and security features to try to prevent unauthorised access.

Our site may, from time to time, contain links to and from the websites of our other like networks, and affiliates. If you follow a link to any of these websites, please note that these websites have their own privacy policies and that we do not accept any responsibility or liability for these policies. Please check these policies before you submit any personal data to these websites.

Disclosure

TWC abides by the laws of England and Wales and will disclose information as required in response to subpoena, search warrant or other legal process. It aims to uphold the laws and principles of the Data Protection Act of 1998. TWC will only disclose data that has been freely given by users.

Third Parties

TWC will not allow any unauthorised persons to access the data collected from users and will not supply information to a third party or parties.
